

Mount Auburn can accept a transfer Evaluation Team Report (ETR) from another public district if the following criteria are met:

- The district accepts the ETR
- The district also accepts the timelines in effect on the ETR
- The Outcome Beginning Date is the date the district adopted the ETR
- The Outcome End Date is the date the original ETR expires
- If the district accepts the ETR, the next ETR must be an RETR
- If ID diagnosis, review the Intellectual Disability Eligibility Checklist to confirm student actually does qualify for ID.

If a district does not accept the ETR from out of state, they must start the eligibility process from the beginning.
